24 Civ. 5606 (AT)

ORDER

The Court is in receipt of the parties' joint letter and proposed case management plan. ECF Nos. 19, 19-1. In their proposed plan, the parties request 180 days to conduct fact discovery and an additional six weeks to conduct expert discovery. ECF No. 19-1 ¶¶ 5–7. However, in their letter, the parties do not explain what “unique complexities” or “exceptional circumstances” justify a fact discovery period exceeding 120 days. See Model Civil Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order ¶ 5. Accordingly, by November 15, 2024, the parties shall submit a revised case management plan explaining what circumstances justify an extended discovery period. If no such circumstances exist, the parties shall propose a case management plan with revised fact and expert discovery deadlines by that same date.

SO ORDERED.
